very enjoyable story

By Brenda Kness

I enjoyed Cade and Emma's story. I really liked all the characters in this book. Emma was fun to read about. She is feisty and stubborn and at times you just want to shake some sense into her.

Her and Cade together, I just loved reading it. The part in the field in the white dress, well tears happened...

This was such a sweet, feel good, heartwarming story for me.

I look forward to the next book from Brooke May. I can't wait to get more from these characters and see what is to come.

THIS is why I love Cowboy Books!

By TammyF

I am so happy I accidentally 'found' Brooke May! My Cowboy is her debut novel and holy smokes...she knocked it out of the park at her first time at bat! Her main heroine, Emma, is a pint-sized spitfire full of snark that kicks ass and takes name but inside has a heart bigger than the moon. Cade, *le sigh*, is every woman's dream of what their cowboy should be. Set in Wyoming with beautifully written descriptions that make me feel like I can truly see the landscapes and feel the cold weather. I love the way she created this series. Her involvement of the secondary characters let me as a reader get to know and love them. I'm a series junkie and know I'll be loving book 2 just as much. Grab this jewel fast and you'll be able to say, "I read her debut novel and knew she would become a best seller"!
