This series is designed to reflect the magical teachings and philosophy of the Hermetic tradition. It explores the techniques used in ceremonial magic and includes practical ritual advice for the working magician. Each volume focuses on one theme, with contributions by various authors experienced in Western ceremonial magic. Book 2 explores the various aspects of the mystical system of Qabalah, both ancient and modern. These include: the history and evolution of the Qabalah, inquiries into how the Qabalah is used for spiritual growth, traditional techniques of gematria, merkabah mysticism and angel magic, comparisons between Qabalistic philosophy and the sciences of astrology, alchemy and psychology, investigations into the goddess and feminine energies on the Tree of Life, sphere-workings, telematic magic, Qabalistic aspects of Golden Dawn magic, and new Qabalistic rituals for practising magicians.

The Golden Dawn Journal, Book II

By cortezhill

As both an order and a magical tradition in the 19th century, the Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn is responsible for planting the seeds of magic that today have sown magical organizations throughout the world. The Golden Dawn and its reverberating facets are now meticulously depicted in the ongoing series Ther Golden Dawn Journal.

Book Two: Qabalah: Theory and Magic explores the various aspects of this mystical system, both ancient and modern. These include the history and evolution of Qabalah, inquiries into how the Qabalah is used for spiritual growth, traditional techniques of Gematria, Merkabah mysticism and Angel magic, comparisons between Qabalistic philosophy and the science of Astrology, Alchemy and Psychology, investigations into the Goddess and feminine energies on the Tree of Life, Spere-workings, Telesmatic magic, explorations into the Qabalah aspects of Golden Dawn Magic, and new Qabalah rituals for today's practicing magicians.

The Golden Dawn Journal, Book Two presents the world's best known occult and magical organization in a clear and practical way, providing a vehicle for communication, exploration and discussion for anyone interested in understanding the universe and his or her role in it.
