Three Stars

By Amelia

Seems too much like a copy-cat Steel Magnolias. Has two endings.

A wonderful new Southern female comedy!

By South of Ventura

Hilarity abounds when the feisty females of Eden Falls, Georgia, decide to shake up their lives. The action in this rollicking Southern comedy takes place in SPA-DEE-DAH!, the abandoned church-turned day spa where this group of friends gathers every Friday afternoon. After the loss of a dear friend, the women realize time is precious and if they're going to change their lives and achieve their dreams they have to get on it now! But Sugar Lee, their high-spirited, determined leader, has her hands full keeping the women motivated. Carlene's given up on romance, having buried three husbands. Nita's a nervous wreck from running interference between her problematic son and his probation officer. Mavis' marriage is so stagnant she's wondering how she can fake her own death to get out of it. And sweet, simple Crystal entertains them all, singing Christmas carols with her own, hilarious lyrics. The comic tension mounts when a sexy, ex-boyfriend shows up unexpectedly, a marriage proposal comes from an unlikely suitor and Sugar Lee's arch rival vows she'll stop at nothing to steal the spa away from her. By the time the women rally together to overcome these obstacles and launch their new, improved lives, you've got a side-splitting, joyful comedy that will make you laugh out loud and shout "Hallelujah!"

Love this play!

By jthughes

When I heard one of my local community theaters was producing this play, I immediately went to Amazon to get a copy. This is a funny, heartwarming play with lots of humor, wit, zingers - and true friendship among a group of women who have experienced life. And the best part is by having this play in hand, I was prepared for the audition - and got the part! Even if you're not an actor, this is still a good read.
