Great Unique Supplement to the 3.5 D&D Rules

By Ron Hornbeck

If you were going to create a Wal-Mart in your D&D campaign, this book would be a must. It contains a myriad of unique equipment, weapons, armor, instruments, tools, clothing items and knick-knacks. They have whole sections devoted to useful items (both magical and mundane) for Sorcerers, Bards, Monks, Rogues, Fighters and even a section for Psychic Mastery, just to name a few. A must for every game master.

Good buy perfect for those who like a lot of weapons

By Dormric N.

This book is great for those hoping to increase the size of their weapon and item arsenal. If not for the some what unorganized listings, its an absolute buy. It lists alchemically made items, weapons, armor, and the average but wicked equipment such as the glasscutter for stealthy rogues. It has no vehicals however which I will admit is a let down. All in all though it is worth your money.
