WHEN ADAM LACROFT MET DEATH BY CARLOS PAOLINI PDF

"I'm what awaits at the end," she added in a deep voice, mocking a story-teller, "the one thing no man can avoid." She giggled at my unchanging look of incomprehension. "I'm Death, silly." After being caught in a car accident, Adam Lacroft meets Death (a gorgeous brunette in her twenties and something of a flirt). Eve, as she tells him to call her, explains that she feels bad about Adam's pointless death and, out of some weird sense of pity and fancy, offers him a deal to win his life back. She gives him three days to find the man that killed him and kindly return him the favor. Adam fills his best friend Erica (a gorgeous redhead. Adam is just surrounded by hot chicks) in on the whole thing and they both start the hunt. But as Adam and Erica find out more and more about their target, they find less and less of Eve's version of the events and Adam starts to worry--less about if what he is going to do is right or wrong--and more about if Even will honor their contract and give him what she promised. Carlos Eduardo del Valle Paolini Carrero was born in Caracas, Venezuela, 1994. He's not related to his knowledge, to the other writer Christopher Paolini in any way. This is his first novel and it's awesome. Buy it and give it a home.

Fresh!

By Vicente

Great book and great plot!! new and funny way of looking at death. In a more serious tone it is really impressive to see the characters evolve through the novel since Adam is not only becoming an adult, but he is also going through some very confusing and hard situations to deal with. It is awesome how such a young author can guide you through a complicated story with some very dark places while keeping the sense of humor.

Waiting for book 2!

A take on Death

By vvb

I found this story to be a good start to a series with an interesting take on Death and grim reaper concept. Although it does have a cliffhanger ending and left me with questions about the character Death.

The main character, Adam, has a fun sense of humor which makes for some amusing and cute moments.
