Sherrell Devore is the talk of Baton Rouge, Louisiana now that famous rapper Baisean "Bae" Torrei has been released out of prison and left her for Gianna Anderson daughter of star NFL player Gene Anderson. Sherrell is lost and does not know where to start to pick up the pieces of her life. All she thought she had was Bae and now he has given her the worst betrayal of life. As she starts to wallow in her sorrows, Fiona comes along to help her pick up the pieces. Fiona fly's Sherrell out to New York City to help Sherrell discover who she is and what she wants out of life but, while Sherrell is in New York, she discovers much more. Sherrell realizes that the music stopped a long time ago she just wasn't listening....The music that played in her heart was always playing but the music that played in her life with Bae died a long time ago and Fiona was going to show her how to find the music she was in search for all these years. The closer Sherrell gets to Fiona the more she realizes that everyone has secrets and sometimes you can't trust everybody. Sometimes it's best to just trust yourself. The closer Sherrell gets to Fiona she realizes that Fiona is not who she claims to be.....

By Trevanne Foxtton

She has a vivid imagination but she is a lousy writer who needs to work on her grammar. And she ignores her fans on Instagram so I will never support her again.

Good read

By Amazon Customer

This was a good read. Just a little hard to get through for the editing issues. I will say the author is rude to her fans on instagram, not answering questions and not accepting requests. If she wants loyal readers she would do better.
